

APR 10 1957

Approved For Release 2000/08/26 : CIA-RDP75-00001R

FOIAb3b

Col. William A. Carroll

Col. William A. Carroll, USAR (ret.), 68, an employee of the War Assets Administration and the Central Intelligence Agency since retirement after World War II, died Sunday at Georgetown Hospital after an operation.

He was awarded a certificate of commendation for service with the office of the Inspector General here from 1942 to 1946.

Col. Carroll was born in Chicago, where he was past commander of the Advertising Men's Post, American Legion. He served with the 341st Infantry during World War I.

He was a member of the D.C. chapter, Military Order of World Wars, the Reserve Officers Association, and the Holy Name Society of St. Thomas Apostle Church, 27th st. and Woodley rd. nw.

Surviving are his wife, Ethel, with whom he had lived at the Kennedy-Warren Apartments for 16 years; two daughters, Nancy Conley, 3602 Thornapple st., Chevy Chase, and Bette Cook, Shelly Bay, Bermuda; a son, William Jr., Dallas, Tex.; nine grandchildren, and a brother, Cmdr. E. J. Carroll, USN (ret.), Glencoe, Ill.

Requiem mass will be offered at 9 a. m. Wednesday at St. Thomas Apostle Church. Burial with military honors will be in Arlington Cemetery. Expressions of sympathy may be sent to the memorial fund, ladies board, Georgetown Hospital.

